MAZINGIRA TILES
HANDMADE IN AFRICA

A STORY AS OLD AS AFRICA

Mazingira means ‘ambiance’ in Swahili. Each tile tells a story as each one is handcrafted by skilled craftsmen here in South Africa. A coloured concrete mixture is poured by hand into a steel mould, more sand & cement are added before being placed under a hydraulic press to compress the tile into its shape.

This traditional art form dates back centuries, and now we have this skill-set here in South Africa.
